on." So quoth Eliza, reliet of th Nims, the sexton, to her lodger, the line muslin was her first a; to this the little lassic paid sees and embraces from the charring the grown-up to the charring the charring mafar. She seemed a little in from afar. She a smed a little in of him and rarely speece with him se than live reinstes at a time, at a delightful task it would be to so away the timidity from the soft, a-like eyes, and how pleasant to k that the seasahell plak stole to circles from oy at his spercach!

ate, however, ernelly interfered in Mr. Byron's dream of awarening oving over dence in the bosons of this ashful maiden of seventeen. In three that weeks, before he had made say sert works, before he had made ray erceptible bendway. Miriam was summoned to the bed side of a dring relative and Julius Beron was called to a arish in a commercial town.

Three long years this bdy had been the post and through all this I me the e post and through all this time the tory of Miriam Douglas excluded other love from the young clergy's heart, though many were the leases willing to be therein enwondered at himself; she had sed completely out of his material at c; he knew not where she was, she were dead, or worse—married with all this uncertainty, he could orget her, and a voice within him white page was stayed for the se-time by a heavy footstep at the door die; and Mrs. Nims, paning an on from the ascent of the steep

There, suri you could not have found and Piper and T poor say up their waters and the enabled him to read and that it is a first-rate one, and that cath that it is a first-rate one, and that you needed fear exchanging with any one by mi take, for they had only one of the kind. This decided me to be at the service the young clergemen saw in its in thy the sender figure of a hely candle man, you might easily pick up the fore the end of the expression.

nk you, M s. Nims, thank you: time that you do snith by for me ever management and forethought."
In the wedding to take place on the ng day Mr. Byron felt no partic-terest. The contract parties were st strangers to him, as were also guests, with the exception of Wil-Howard, a schoolmaster of days by, and a friend ever since of the g to the illness of the bride's er, the ceremony was performed r sheeny, fleesy drapery; and the guests was the sub-lued mer-t which prevails when the enterad sorrow - the smile and tear both our the heart. er the ceremony Mr. Byron par-himself to a dressing-room to fold riplice and replace it in the sachel a by Mrs. Nims. While so ena letter was handed him with the ward to meet Mr. Byron, and, during the course of the maids, catching a glimpse of me through the window, set up a scream, declaring that she had been great rejoicing, but within the past twenty-four hours their joy had been turned to mourning by a dispatch summoning the newly-made father to the death-bed of his only a ster in Germany. The young mother seemed to the death of partied approach to before the departure of this seemed to be the death be bessed to the death-bed of his only a ster in Germany. The young mother seemed to be the rooms, smoog whom, to my sorrow, was Edith Fuller—my Edith, you know. We had quarreled and partied, never to meet again; but the ridic, lous feature of this seemed to break the ice between us and—Well, Byron, I have bissed the memory of your surplice ever about the ridic, lous feature of this seemed to break the ice between us father. The clergyman of the parish was temporarily absent, hence III. Byron, the sexton, to her lodger, would be performed in the chapel controlled to see how it became me, when one of the unids, catching a glimpse of me through the window, set up a scream, declaring that she had been great rejoicing, but within the past twenty-four hours their joy had been turned to mourning by a dispatch beauty as the ridic, lous feature of this scene seemed to break the ice between us and—Well, Byron, I have bissed the memory of your surplice ever since."

"That contretemps of the sache's was a hicky thing for us both."

"Piper and Tipson and their humbers to be a seemed to be the death of the memory of your surplice ever since."

"That contretemps of the middle parties of the sache's was a hicky thing for us both."

"Piper and Tipson and their humbers to be a seemed to be a

"My young lady told me to tell you, ar, that, if you would not think it any learn, she would send you her—Oh, no, I don't mean that, sir She said I was not to say who it belonged to, but she would out the bands off the sleeves and the face from the neck, and it would be long, and nobody would notice that it was a night-gown, sr; and, if you didn't mind, sr, I would go and letch it at once, for there is no time to lose."

The girl's concluding remarks were only too true; and, however much he might have her tated at her suggestion in cooler moments, he was thankful now for any solution of the di-ficulty. "Tell your mistress that I shall be ery grateful for the loan she proposes, very grateful for the loan she proposes, if she thinks the deception will not be discorpod.

The servant vanished, and was soon on the spect again with a snowy lines night gown. The neck at the back ad been torn down to admit houser shoulders, and a linen handher had her net go ar and plural verbs is right which ten hastily at taken in to a detail the next to be right. When a Most of the ornamentation had been lade o v ev danty to te .

pl e, and less har ied to fact an ise men, are it can be comed to fact an ise men, are it can be comed to serve his grant on e. I e bery d with a sight grant on e. I e bery d with a sight grant on e. I e bery d with a sight men of a salar; in the above example men of a salar; in the above example Thank of me this somble a cof a sur or or cheaper sa hel you will it f than f hass that the chapel was ad searched the town is mend to be dark and the enabled him to read man, you might easily pick up the fore the end of the ceremony her feelleft the chur h stilling who might have beer a sob, but which sounded strange ly like a laugh. What Mr. Byron feared would be a trying ordeal was soon over, and he remered the vestry-room with a much lighter heart than when he left it. While d scobing a name in indel ble ink on the gown a tracted his attention. Perhaps he should have respected his fair benefac ress wish to remain unknows, but the temptation was too strong. He turned to the light and read the name-"Mirlam Douglas"-under the tucks and embrodery of the robe which he had just d scarded. Was it a coincidence, or had a kind can grant me tive minute. Interview vanced toward the northwest horizontal came, in great frepidat on, for the ney.—N. Y. Post.

novel surplice.

In a cosy little reception room Julius

—The ancient

waiting.

Syampus Mannow.

will go I suppose?" said Willis to whom I was offering that garment. I recognized you at once in church, and in spite of the solemnity of the occa-

At Portland a respectably dressed man in charge of awagenette came forward to meet Mr. Byron, and, during the drive to the Hall, the former discoursed freely upon the existing and the surplice to see how it became me, when one of the maids, catching.

Mr. Willis Howard had beingst one that very morning in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have us if by a mircele, had escaped growing in which to stow away have used to the story had had held him split. Here was a predicament inteed for growing and the event was a predicament inteed for growing and the wartrobe in the vestry-by which had held him split. Here was a predicament inteed for the ward to have a can be such that the intervent was to eliminate the case of the same who had altered was to be done? Even if the area of the same who had altered as the large which had held him split. Here was a predicament inteed for the second was to cause the large and the same was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and others was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians politicians and the large was to grid are equally "simal eccasions; politicians politicians politicians politicians politi

"Then I will write my message in a about one and one-half inches broad; correct to say "The army wer marching" as it would be to say "General Grant's army were composed of fifty the sand men." And, on the other hand, is would be incorrect to say ren on in i cates to be right. cut away; but enough remained to mind away assail by from the Treasury prove that the granut bass etto a the fined States as may preserve sant "The units States cave me." On the other hand he might be excused for is a single act of the United States as a single, sovereign Government. The increase in copulation refers to what is bath, etc. happening at a greater or less rate in

In some cases, however, either form is correct, according to good usage, which is the soil basis of English grammar. A man is before the public in a certain capacity, and the people unges (or judge) whether he is qualified to fill the place he tries to occupy. Une may use either singular or p ural and speak good Eng ish. This merely illustrates he fact that it is the idea that governs the number of the verb, and one can see gard to the act of the people, by noticing which form he employs. - Fouth's what is the idea of the speaker, in re-

-The sunflower does not turn with dis recognized you at once in church, and it space of the solemnity of the occasson I had to laugh. It was such an uncommonly had fit."

It was a great boon to me, and I shall be everlastingly grateful to you for coming to the rescue."

A uniden indifference as to the hours of departing trains seemed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and be a seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and the constant and the seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and the constant and the seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and the constant and the seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and the constant and the seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and the constant and the seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and be a seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and be a seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and be a seed to take possession of Mr. Byron, and be a seed to take possession ranted interferences will surely bring dampness and gases which are gener the meetings themselves into disrepute, and spread all through the house, and most prefitable system of keeping every nook and corner of the house and fowls involves four things, viz. I. premises. Wherever there are any fowls involves four things, cir. I. premises. Wherever there are any dame spots found, disinfect them, and food, cleanliness, pure water, the dust tions and t mperate living, we shall be

____ Eggs and lieus.

People who have hens must be dis-tinguished from those who keep fowls.

Most of what is written is betended for the latter class, and these are encouraged to become fanciers-a poor plan, as a rule. The beginner should learn cally when expressed in teasing, or in to keep fowls with profit; then he may a practical joke, is often followed by adopt a breed which he likes and be regret, remose and shame. This fact come a fancier, but in nine cases out of ten there will be no prefit in it.

limited, and it may be safely predicted that the demand for fresh eggs will be tion:

The innocent victim was a pupil in papille who should not be safely predicted.

The innocent victim was a pupil in ter are those who do not and who will not; for there is no duller class of peothe sam, as many people suppose. It has been observed that the flowers do have a prevailing direction when opening. In the case of one of these plants bearing sixty-eight flowers, up to a certain time all had their heads inclined to the suppose of plan, or any plan at all, than the writing her name on slips of paper and the farmers—that is, those who have showing them to her until the ambible and the case of one of these plants bearing sixty-eight flowers, up to a certain time all had their heads inclined to the country of the contract of fate led him to the shrine of his idol? tain time all had their heads inclined to by a thin, poorly-fed hen is as great as one vote for her.

The uncertainty was not to be borne. the southeast. Three days after this the difference between good beef and the poor child, almost broken-heart-will you ask Miss Bouglas if she twenty-one of the older ones had adpose the poor. A fowl fed on gardings and weak ed, laid her head on her desk and cried when those eggs are broken to be used seen developed into brain-fever. for cake, pies, etc., they will spread in Through all her sickness, her

Single Date with a saming and a state of the saming and a state of the saming and a state of the saming and state of the saming around the Barrett and state of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and state of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and state of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and state of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and state of the Barrett and showing around the Barrett and state of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and State of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and State of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing around the Barrett and State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the State of the State of the Central Market, showing a state of the Stat over this.—The Household.

The Household a father the the the, that the law, that the holder and his who had some tomatoses in a basket, "but the Cerrange of the Household the with his beginning to all known a is in animal outside the writer. It is an absolute fact that will be proposed the writer. It is an absolute fact that will be proposed the writer. It is an absolute the writer. It is an absolute fact that will be population of Arserica increased thirty per cent. during the decade between the Coroner's jury, "said a man whose hair the Household.

The Household.

The Household.

At the next station the the wither. It is an absolute fact that will be population of Arserica increased thirty per cent. during the decade between the Coroner's jury, "said a man whose hair in a super shop mean by.

The Hou when I well three it the content of the chief conte

In his purplexity he rang or the man who had already waited on him.

"Is there a lady in the house with whom I could speak for a few moments?" Mr. Byron asked.

"My mistress' cousin is here, but she does not leave the invalid's rooms for anything just at presents"

Then I will write my message in a content of the invalid speak for a narrow row of contents."

In his purplexity he rang or the man crumb-cloths laid over the large tables of ancy cattle for sale to farmers. The great and most money and coffee-cloth and napkins produced by her own industry.

The embroidery is done with fast-colored blue cotton, in tambour stitch. The cloth has a hom-stitched border about one and one-half inshes broad; this is followed by a narrow row of the transport of the irrelevant issues the range tables of ancy cattle for sale very wise suggestion. But it is not way of becoming acquainted with rhyth-over rival breeds of fancy cattle for sale very wise suggestion. But it is not bed, it begins to cry; listen attentively to its respiration. Between each third pause to think it will not be difficult for a feet that any dwelling-house, under the most pertinent and by far the most disinterested address was a heated wrangle over rival breeds of fancy cattle for sale very wise suggestion. But it is not more needed than is a rigid inspection of our rural residences. If we will not be difficult for a feet that any dwelling-house, under the feet that the most pertinent and by far the most disinterested address was a heated wrangle over rival breeds of fancy cattle for sale very wise suggestion. But it is not into the feet that it is not be suggestion. But it is not be a feet that the most of the front as earnestly as if every farmer pause to think it will not be difficult for us to see that any dwelling-house, under the feet that the most pertinent and by far the most of the front as earnestly as if every farmer pause to think it will not be difficult for us to see that any dwelling-house, under the feet that the most pertinent and the pau Then I will write my message in a shout one and one-half meles froat, this is followed by a narrow row of could on paper, and dispatched the servant with it. In answer the la ly sent her maid to inquire if search had been made coverywhere in the vestry-room for a surplice. He sent has k word that further search was us-less.

There are the late by a jurist, and it is not less notation that is not less notation that is followed by a narrow row of could on paper, and dispatched the servant with it. In answer the la ly sent her that another row of embroidery, six inches broad. Both these border rows are executed in remaissance style. The sent has k word that further search was us-less.

There are the late by a jurist, and it is not less notation that is not less notation. The parts of its surroundings, that receive no attention, and are secuted in remaissance at parts of it, or parts of it, or parts of it, or parts of its surroundings, that receive no attention, and are secuted in remaining such gathering against attending such gatherings. They are justified in resenting the interference, and the wonder is that most of the irrelevant issues were introduced by farmers.

It is this self-seeking and ax-grinding such gathering such gathering against attending such gathering are executed in remaissance style. They are justified in resenting the interference, and the irrelevant issues were introduced by farmers.

It is this self-seeking and ax-grinding is such that prejudices a good many farmers against attending such gathering in the very best conditions of development of the interference, and the wonder is that receive no attention, and are interested by farmers.

It is this to like that most of the irrelevant issues that the interference in the very best conditions of development of the interference, and the wonder is that the interference in the very best conditions of development of the interference in the very best conditions of the very best conditions of the part of the interference in the very best conditions of surplice. He sent hank word that further search was us-less.

After some moments of, to him, terrible suspense—for the time was almost come for him to suppear in the hapel—the mad returned, and, with deep blushes and a nervous twitch up of her apron hem, began:

Nouns of Multitude.

Shields in the four corners of the cloth are intended to be alternately filled up with the date and the owner's initials. The napkins have the same narrow border, but only the shields in two opposite come for him to suppear in the hapel—the managers of meetings allow the importance, and the wonder is that the interference, and the wonder is that importance, and the wonder is that the interference, and the wonder is that the interference, and the wonder is that importance, and the interference, and the wonder is that importance, and the wonder is that importance, and the interference, and the wonder is that importance, and the interference, and the wonder is that importance, and the wonder is that importance, and the interference, and the wonder is that importance, and the importance of meetings allow the importa In you say "The army were marching?"
"A series of resolutions were or were introduced?"
"The people rises in their might," or "The people rises in their might," or "The people rise in their might," is the United States a Nation, or, Are the United States a Confederacy?

In each of the above cases a "noun of multitude" is used. The grammars tell us that while the verb agrees with its subject in number and person, nouns of multitude, though in the singular number, take a plural verb.

English grammar, however, on not be bound by any rules. It is just as incorrect to say "The army were marching."

In each of the above cases a "noun of multitude, though in the singular of the latter is no match for their "cheek." Such irrelevancies are not tolerated in the meeting of the Grange, where farmers are educated in a regular order of del beration and to act as organized bodies. It would be well if members of the Grange could earry into public assemblies of farmers. The cellar, if it is not perfectly ventilearry into public assemblies of farmers. The cellar, if it is not perfectly ventilits order, propriety and self-respect, ated, is the very perfection of cause for This should be done because unwarthe evils we have mentioned. The and thus deprive far ners of the bene- though we may not not ce them, we fits, social and business, which undoubted by come from such exercises properly conflucted.—The Country Stic.

In the same they are there, and that our systems are getting the full benefit of them. The first thing to do with the cellar is to ventilate it, and a good coat of whitewash is cheaper than doctor bills, and will save the latter. Our ad-It must be borne in min't that the vice to our readers is to closely inspect warmth. 2. Flenty of reom or fewer sulplime of iron is as good and cheap as fowls in summer. 3. Very early in withing that can be had for this purhatched pullets for winter layers. 4. pose. Use plenty of whitewash where-Constant attention as to regularity of ever it is needed, and with these precaureasonably safe from cholera or other

A Frohen Cent. The thoughtlessness of youth, espe ome a fancier, but in nine cases out of en there will be no prefit in it.

Our supply of eggs in winter is very tive of the death of a Little girl at San people who should raise eggs in win- the high school, and was a cand date, through the solicitation of her friends, for Queen of the May. But this was a ple in the community, with reterence cruel hoax, got up for amusement. He to matters which require thought and mates promised to vote for her, even can grant me five minute. Interview vanced toward the northwest horizontal slops, with very little grain of any bitterly. She went home and was taken but or I go?" he said to the girl who face becoming erect during the jour- kind, may lay eggs, to be sure, but ill. The illness, though slight at first,

Through all her sickness, her heater In a cosy little reception-room Julius aby Mrs. Nims. While so enalcter was handed him with the companion of his immediately" critical conspicution the envelope. The contents is follows:

The distinct of General Ward in 1775, and later the sale and residence of Boy. Abiel Holmes, his son. In a cosy little reception-room Julius Byron was presently received by her was handed him with the companion of his incompanion of his at monomial in contents and the envelope. The contents is follows:

The ancient Holmes mansion on a weak, watery way over your dish, or look a milky white instead of having joke that had been played by her who had been the companion of his abundance of the envelope. The contents of General Ward in 1775, and later the land was the headquarters of General Ward in 1775, and later the residence of Boy. Abiel Holmes, his son. It is a the more resistance of Boy. Abiel Holmes, his son. It is a the more resistance of Boy. Abiel Holmes, his son. Oliver Wendell Holmes, his son that the content is stole and yields to the beating of the knife or spoon with more resistance of Boy. Abiel Holmes, his son. Oliver Wendell Holmes, his son that the convertion that you are really beating something thicker than water or diluted milk.—N. K. Hereid.

Through all her sickness, her heated heaving a weak, watery way over your dish, or look a milky white instead of having box that had been played by her are headquarters of General Ward in 1775, and later the sable and yields to the beating of the knife or spoon with more resistance of Boy. Abiel Holmes, his son. It is a weak, watery way over your dish. On an even, and was, the headquarters of the sale was shell unany years before the Revolution are really beating something thicker and the companion of his are the solution of the sale was shell unany years before the headquarters of General Ward in 1775, and later the sale was the headquarters of General Ward in 1775, and later the sale was the feature of Boy and the convertence of Boy and the convertence of Boy and the c The Boy and the Bec.

dollar hill. added a young man with eye-glasses on

Just then a policeman pushed his way into the crowd and asked the trouble, and someone said a boy had been seized with the bilious colic.

"Seized me right here!" whined the lad, as he stood up and clasped his stomach.

He had on a shirt torn down the front and held by a single pin, and his pants were held up by a strap. The officer opened his shirt, and a bumble-bee, looking as large as a walnut, crept out and was brushed to the ground. Just below the boy's chest was a red swelling larger than his fist and still growing.

"No colle about that," observed the officer, as he crushed the sputtering bee. Only one person in the crowd had a remark to make, as the boy loped off. That was the woman with the cucum—

The value of moderation and the utmost.

Why?

Because men, in business and the professions, women, at home or in society, and carle. This brings about nervous disorders, indigestion and eventually mania. It is not always trouble with the bend that causes insanity. It far oftener arises from evils in other parts of the body. The nervous system determines the status of the brain. Any one who has periodic headaches; cocasional distributes; a dimension, and other parts of the body. The nervous system determines the status of the brain. Any one who has periodic headaches; cocasional distributes at school overtax their mental and nervous forces by work, worry and care. This brings about nervous discourse in the land nervous states and eventually mania. It is not always trouble with the bend that causes insanity. It far oftener arises from evils in other parts of the body. The nervous system determines the status of the brain. Any one who has periodic headaches; cocasional distributes, and care in his stomach, should take warning at once. The stomach should take warning at once in a single part the pit of the stomach, should take warning at once in a single part the pit of the stomach and head are in direct sympathy, and if one be impaired the other can never be a remark to make, as the boy loped off. That was the woman with the cucum-bers. She sort o' shook them after the bers. She sort o' shock them after the retreating figure, and called out:

"This orter be a great moral lesson to that boy, but I doubt it—can't help but doubt it. If we had any right—any legal right—to open him to-morrow and look into his stomach, we'd wonder why that bumble-bee fooled his time away instead of tackling a grindstone!"—Detroit Free Press.

"Where have we to seek the model of rhethm and measure in music?" was the subject of an interesting paper read as the French Academy of Moral and Political Science. The different measures, according to an eminent French physiologist, may be ascertained for the subject of the many terring the retreation and the impartive necessity of care in keeping is stomach right must therefore be clear all. The least appearance of indigestion of an invasing army. Many means have been advocated for meeting such attacks but all have heretofore been more a less defective. There can be little doubt, however, that for the purpose of regularing the stomach, tooing it up to proper action, keeping its nerves in a normal condition and purifying the blood, Warner's Tippecano The Best, exceis all ancient or recent discoveries. It is absolutely pure and vegetable, it is carriain to add vigor to adults, while it can not by any possibility injure even a child. The fact that it was used in the days of the famous Harrison family is proof positive of its merit as it has so thoroughly withstood the test of time. As a tonic and revivillar it. physiologist, may be ascertained from the amble, trot and gallop of a horse, and from the buman pulse in a normal condition. From measure to rhythm there is but a step—in fact, so small a step that they are often confounded.

M. Leveque's rule for distinguishing the two is: the more soul is put into music the richer, more impressive is the rightm; the more regularity is put into rivithm; the more regularity is put into music, the more it approaches the normal state of the pulse, it loses rhythm and gains measure. And this is one wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. continue for awhile. The regular breathing is interrupted, "grief mingles a psychological element" with the measure, and the measure becomes The rule for gaining an exact rhythm. The rule for gaining an exact knowledge of measure is: mount a horse, make it amble, trot or gallop, and mark the time. If M. Leveque be correct, the best gift a poet can desire is a good horse. Judging from some of cur verse, their steeds, if steeds they have, are limping, stumbling jades at best—Pail Mall Gazette.

THE GENERAL MARKETS. KANSAS CITY, Sep. WHEAT-No. OORN-No. 2
OATS-No. 2
HAYE-No. 2
FLOUR-Faney, per sack
HAY-Car ions, bright
3UTTER-Choice creamory.
CHERSE-Knisss, new ERGS-Choice
PORK-Hems
Shoulders CATFLE-Shipping Steers... ST. LOCIS. Butchers
ROGS-Good to cho
SHEEP-Fuir to che
FLOUR-XXX to che
WHEAT-No. 2 red

ORN-No. 2 mixed... OATS-No. 2. RYE-No. 2. COTTON-Middling CATTLE-Good shipping HOUS Good to choice SHEEP-Page to choice PLOUR-Common to c WHEAT-No. 2 red. . RK-New Mess

Catholic College.

Mr. J. D. Kingsley, Secretary, Holy Pross College Gymnasium, Worcester, Mass., writes: Every member of our club frankly admits that St. Jacob's Oil, the conqueror of pain, is the bost cure they have ever used, and all speak of it in terms of the highest approbation. 50 cents a bot

What is the difference between a God-dess of Liberty and a detective? One is always on the dollar and the other always on the scent.

Last year's fashions are out of date, last year's friends are still our own. This is why Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound never loses favor; every lady who knows its worth (and who does now?) feels that the kindly face of Mrs. Pinkham is that of an honored friend.

"Tue dog came for me," said the tramp, "and I played I was a railroad contractor." "What did you do?" "Made tracks." -Rocketer Post-Express.

Is afflicted with Sore Kyes, use Dr. Isaac Thompson's Eye Water. Druggists sell it. 25c. Brwans of green fruit. The fruit can not help being green, but you can. - Philo-delphia Chronicle-Heraid.

Pino's REMEDY for Catarri is a certain Is makes a milk-man's with hugh to ask her if her silk dress is watered. - Chicago Tribusa. A TOUCHING INCIDENT.

One of the atrongest proof Kidney-Work as a resonen of the Kidneys, Like in the fact that it is used by "regular" physicians. lou, M. D., of Mounton, Vit all in all, if is the most ody I have ever mod."

proud of, but he aiways wantes. - Merchant Transfer persodes ofly ung PAULTT grammarians sho

EDUCATIONAL. BRYANT & STRATTON'S

saw for fire Lungs many years with the most grantfying results. The pain and rack of the body, incidental to a tight cough, soon disappear. My wife frequently sends for HALL'S FALSAW instead of a physician." The rule of three at Mount Desithe third person to clear out.

The most verdant young man of period was the one who attempted to grass with a hicycle.—Boston Budget.

A nousing demonstration-Getting tions for two-cent stamp.

$500 CASH, FREE UNCOLORED ROYAL TE

me; that Sheridan's C CHICKEN CHOLERA.

To prevent and cure all "Skills Discusses," and to secure a white-sett and beautiful Complexion, use =BEESON'S=

and small is DREYDOPPEL'S

REE WHERE ALL ELSE FRILE.